PANELING

*"My philosophy is to invent in the old tradition.
I like to create spaces that meet my clients needs, with the perfect sense of scale, symmetry and timeless beauty".*

Generation after generation, the Fancellis have been architects and sculptors on wood. Jean-Pierre Fancelli, current heir to the family tradition, works directly with his clients and approaches his craft with the commitment to create spaces that reflect the perfect balance of harmony and timeless aesthetic. The team of artisans, sculptors and cabinet makers uphold the tradition and carry on the sophisticated art of fine wood paneling that graces the walls of some of the world's most beautiful interiors. With projects in Europe (Paris, Madrid, Moscow) as well as Canada and the United States, Fancelli Paneling can create and carve intricate motifs as well as restore and replicate any antique design.
